Pre-Lockdown Covid-19 Edition

Symptomatic Hare?

HONORARY G-M's MESSAGE:
*When we gathered to enjoy our mid-March 2020 Run, Hared by Bags-Of-It, no-one expected an impending calamity would very quickly befall us, with Jersey entering an unprecedented Coronavirus Lockdown.
Less than a week later, mass gatherings were banned, pubs forced to shut, Stay at Home ordered, with self-isolation required for over-65's and the unlucky infected.
This made it inevitable and unavoidable, for the first time in Crapaud H3's thirty-year history, having to suspend our weekly Sunday Runs for the foreseeable future.
Until we can meet again the Mis-Management wish you and all Crapaud's good Health, keeping Safe and Strong.*

From our Scribe: A shockingly good Run. It was lovely to meetup, and nudge elbows on what promised to be a dry run, with actual blue sky and stuff. We clustered around the GM keeping our regulatory 1 metres distance, as he advised that we will carry-on hashing unless there are any Government bans on any sports/social gatherings (Editor, this was before Jersey Lockdown was enforced a few days later), but obviously if anyone has symptoms of coronavirus, please don't attend.

Anyway forgetting the coronavirus for an hour, It was on on past the tea rooms to Beuvelande camp site, the runners found the route through various fields and waterlogged meadows, their route leading them to Queens valley reservoir and fields where it appears the JEC had diverted some left over electricity, Ballcock is now just One Ballcock, and Jules is now Less Fuzz.

Whilst the walkers elected to stay on terra firma, ie roads enjoying a picturesque route around what Bagsofit called the Maufant Bermuda triangle, where every small tumbledown cottage had been transformed into stunningly large properties, along the way identifying Two-Strokes next disaster project.

Back to the pub, for a feast of sausage and chips, and as we didn't have Pervey to play hide the sausage for Lola's later delight, we had loads of leftover sausages.

Hopefully we will see Jacko again one day, after his worldwide quest to find a ski slope open.

Down Downs (see back page) - Lady Trotsky: Slowly imbibed half-pint for her Birthday. Misdemeanours: Ballcock, Fuzz and Discharge for letting Elvis get away with some apparently bad behaviour. Finally, Bagsofit our Hare was congratulated for an excellent Trail with some Virgin sections.

On On, Wendolene. Hoping you survive to re-join our weekly Runs when we can eventually meet again.

COVID-19 JOKES

Don't worry, Coronavirus won't last long.. It was made in China.

Before Coronavirus I used to cough to cover a fart, now I fart to cover a cough.

No sports to watch on Day 3:
Found a lady sitting on my couch yesterday. Apparently she is my wife. She seems nice.

Before Covid-19 the only time we started panic buying was when bartender yelled "last call"

Since everybody has started washing their hands, the peanuts at the bar have lost their taste.

To those who complain about quarantine and curfews, just remember your grandparents were called to war, you are being called to sit on couch and watch Netflix. You can do this.

A suspected Covid-19 male patient is lying in bed in the hospital, wearing an oxygen mask over his mouth and nose. A young student female nurse appears and gives him a partial sponge bath. "Nurse," he mumbles from behind the mask, "are my testicles black?" Embarrassed, the young nurse replies, "I don't know, Sir. I'm only here to wash your upper body and feet." He struggles to ask again, "Nurse, please check for me. Are my testicles black?" Concerned he might elevate his blood pressure and heart rate from worrying about his testicles, she overcomes her embarrassment and pulls back the covers. She raises his gown, holds his manhood in one hand and his testicles gently in the other. She looks very closely and says, "There's nothing wrong with them, Sir. They look fine." The man slowly pulls off his oxygen mask, smiles at her, and says very slowly, "Thank you very much. That was wonderful. Please listen very, very, closely: Are – my – test – results – back?"

HASH ANNOUNCEMENT

CORNISH INVASION
NOW JUNE 2021

Our visit to TH3 has been postponed to June next year, with accommodation deposits paid being credited off our Falmouth Suites self-catering 2021 bookings. Subject to confirmation of flight schedules dates will be departing on Wednesday 23 June 2021 returning on Monday morning 28 June 2021.

Blue Islands eventually confessed we had to re-book our group booked 2020 flight with them and pay deposit again, because Flymaybe (no more) banks had kept our advance payments. No bloody chance, do they think we are stupid? So Tinks has submitted a charge-back claim to his credit card provider and will reimburse flight deposits to everyone who paid when HSBC eventually cough-up the dosh.
