

CRAPAUD CHRONICLE

Free (Plus GST at 5%)
Published almost weekly

6 September 2020

Run 1610

The official organ of the Jersey Crapaud Hash House Harriers

Sister act (part 2)

LAST week we had an excellent run laid by the lovely Wendolene. This week it was the turn of her equally lovely sister Double Tops to be our hare. She had arranged for us to meet at Les Creux Bowling Club in St Brelade. As we assembled there were threatening clouds overhead and more than a few drops of rain, but the weather gods smiled kindly and the sun soon shone through. And so it remained for the rest of the morning.

As we greeted each other there were a variety of methods employed, from cautious elbow glancing and fist pumping through exaggerated luvvie type no-contact kisses all the way to full on fearless hugging. I will leave it to your imagination to work out which hashers used which method. (Your humble scribe had a go at all of them – such fun).

At the now usual start time of 10.15 (sigh) the GM called for the circle to be formed and over 20 souls obediently obliged. Double Tops gave a short introduction to her run which included the promise of dolphins to be seen. The more astute of us reasoned that we might therefore be heading for the coast – and so it proved.

Caught red-handedT

The trail was quickly found leading towards the back entrance of the country park, thence to Beauport and our first sight of the sea. Despite our hare's best efforts she could not entice anybody to go down to the bay. Instead we followed the coastal path and headed for the La

Moye Hilton. From there we entered the gorse maze, skirted around the desalination plant and climbed the old railway. Despite our best efforts we didn't see any dolphins although Frisco claims to have spotted a Minke

She's over the moon

Where did you get that hat?

Whale – sounds fishy to me.

We came out at the Corbière end of the Railway Walk which we crossed over and went down to Petit Port. Then it was a climb to the posh estate of Parc de l'Oeillère and nowt but a hop, skip and jump allowed us to complete the circle and head home.

Nikki at the Bowling Club did us proud with jumbo bacon rolls which we enjoyed in the sunshine on their terrace. Strangely the Club was full of hashers, cyclists, walkers and golfers but nary a bowler to be seen.

The down downs commenced with Jenny who had been in local media but had omitted to mention the Hash – tut-tut. Next were the birthday boys Molehills and Bags-of-it. Finally it was the turn of our hare Double Tops, well done for a great run.

Pip Pip Smuggler

Look! No dolphins

Frisco goes off the rails again

No mask, no bus pass, no hope

She was only the fishmonger's daughter, but she knew her place on the slab

What a helpful hare

Posh down-downs

No wonder it looks pissed off

Down-downs for Jenny, Molehills and Bags of It

Hash ha-ha

Transcripts from American court cases:

ATTORNEY: What was the first thing your husband said to you that morning?

WITNESS: He said, 'Where am I, Cathy?'

ATTORNEY: And why did that upset you?

WITNESS: My name is Susan!

ATTORNEY: Are you sexually active?

WITNESS: No, I just lie there.

ATTORNEY: So the date of conception (of the baby) was August 8th?

WITNESS: Yes.

ATTORNEY: And what were you doing at that time?

WITNESS: getting laid

ATTORNEY: Is your appearance here this morning pursuant to a deposition notice which I sent to your attorney?

WITNESS: No, this is how I dress when I go to work.

ATTORNEY: Do you know if your daughter has ever been involved in voodoo?

WITNESS: We both do.

ATTORNEY: Voodoo?

WITNESS: We do.

ATTORNEY: You do?

WITNESS: Yes, voodoo.

ATTORNEY: Doctor, how many of your autopsies have you performed on dead people?

WITNESS: All of them. The live ones put up too much of a fight.

"I've heard all kinds of sounds from these things, but 'yabba dabba doo' was a new one to me."

Double Tops gets her just reward

Hareline

Run: 1612

Date: 20 September

Hare: Ballcock

On-down: Seymour Tavern

Run: 1613

Date: 27 September (10.30 start)

Hares: Illegal and Fuzz

On-down: Goose Green car park

For latest updates, news, contacts and all the gossip, see: www.crapaud.org