Staycation Hashers

Vital Statistics was the hare for our run/walk this week. She wasn't expecting a large turnout due to half of our club away on the annual skiing and winter walking trip. As it turned out there was a decent number of attendees – ten of us gathered in the car park at Les Quennesvais. However there was only one runner, you guessed it - our redoubtable GM. At the circle the hare explained that there was no trail laid so Steptoe had to make up his own run which he did admirably (see his Strava map below).

Whilst he was treading his lonely path the walkers trotted off to have a look at the new skatepark which is clearly extremely popular. In fact we had to stop Illegal and Ramapant Rabbit from joining in the fun even though they didn't actually have any wheels. After a pleasant amble around the lanes we headed back to the Croquet Club room for the Inn.

We were treated to a lovely spread of fresh baguettes, pate, chesse, pickle and even that rarity tomatoes. After taking our fill it was time for the down downs. Replacement Hash Rev called Captain Poocock for having his picture alongside fellow referees etc. at Springfield. He was joined by Vital Statistics our noble hare. Well done for an enjoyable morning.
