Eastern Delight

This week's run started from the Le Hocq car park on a lovely eastern summer's day. The hares were Smuggler and Nil by Mouth and they were joined by five others who were all runners. As the hares are now walkers due to various aches and pains it meant that the pack would have to rely on the trail which had been marked in yellow chalk and wood shavings. Unfortunately the overnight rain had got rid of most of the chalk signs. Luckily there was a Plan B and Wendolene was handed a map of the trail (this becoming something of a tradition recently!)

The pack headed off to Le Hocq lane and over the hill to Jambart Lane. From there they went through the new estate and onto the Inner Road. A few yards later and they were heading up Rue Graut and onto the fields of the St Clement's path. This eventually led to Rue de Genestet and past Le Rocquier school. An extra loop was added on at this point by Ballcock who led them along Rue de Criox and Samares Lane before heading into the fields that went back to Pontorson Lane. It was then just a short hop back to the meadow behind St. Clement's parish hall where the hares were waiting for them with a lovely picnic spread.

We were also joined by latecomers Is-It-Buggery and Muff Diver. After the food and drink had been seen off and the social niceties completed the hares were suitably punished with half pints of Morrison's best bitter. A very pleasant morning all in all.

COMPETITION TIME: Smuggler will present a prize to the first hasher who contacts him to say they've read this Report!
