

CRAPAUD H3 REPORT

Run No.:	1767
Date:	26 th November 2023
Hare(s):	ET & Wendolene

This week's trail was once again set in the west of the Island with runners and walkers asked to meet at the standard time of ten o'clock in the carpark behind the swimming pool at Les Quennevais Sports Centre. It was a bit nippy – so much so that Jacko almost decided to run in his dressing gown.

There was a fair turnout and our numbers included, for the second week running, hashing stalwart Cliffhanger.

As usual there were one or two latecomers and the inevitable delayed start but eventually the pack set off . . . unfortunately I didn't see in which direction!

My spies tell me that the trail wound its way towards the new school and eventually came out close to Les Ormes golf course. From there it led the runners, closely followed by our ever-increasing number of walkers, of which I'm one, through the grounds of self-catering units and along a new path which runs parallel to the road. We were now heading towards St Ouen's Bay and in particular, Le Mont Fondan. It wasn't long before we were off road again and after ambling through a meadow or two descended the small valley leading to where Smuggler's late uncle (Mac Pollard) once lived.

By this time the runners were well ahead, following a trail over the sand dunes and towards Corbière but luckily Wendolene was able to call them to order and eventually lead them back past the pond in Creepy Valley and on towards the On Home at The Croquet Club House. The walkers took a slightly different route but I'm happy to say ended up in the same place.

Our On Downs this week offered the welcome surprise of bacon rolls with avocados and tomatoes – just to keep us healthy. A big thank you to ET for organising the food and to all the helpers in the kitchen who made sure everyone was fed. You know who you are.

Down Downs this week went to Hooker and Wendolene for having birthdays and to ET and Wendolene for laying a great trail.

Twin Peaks

PS:Next week's run is from The Trafalgar in St Aubin with Hooker and Poocock as hares.
