

CRAPAUD H3 REPORT

Run No:	1773	Date:	7 th January 2024
Hare:	Twin Peaks	Scribe:	Steptoe

Yes, it's been that sort of time. The previous week's storm caused havoc for the hash & this week turned out very cold. This did not, however, prevent a good turnout for Twin Peak's hash from St. Peter. Not only was it the first run/walk of the year but we had Eda, a virgin walker, join us. Whilst we were gathering Wendolene was dashing here & there presenting us with our Christmas present hats.

Twin Peaks gave us our instructions but only after letting Wendolene know something of the trail to be followed. The pack quickly spied the sawdust & set off along the paths to the north of the Airport & kept going in order to warm up. We eventually dropped down to Le Mont du Jubilé only to almost immediately mount the muddy path on the opposite slope. It doesn't take too long before we are in the Arboretum & heading to the reservoir. However, when we reach the footpath we go east & climb, yet again, the opposite slope. Well, we are meant to be cross-country runners!

The country lanes behind the Amazing Maze eventually bring us back to the haven of The Sir George Carteret where the London Pride was in excellent condition. The pack filled the lower lounge. They had plenty of time to exchange New Year greetings & catch up on any news as the food was somewhat delayed. Eventually we were called outside for the down-downs. First to be punished was Steptoe for yet another birthday. And punishment it certainly was as Hash Rev had "rewarded" him with Lager which explains Steptoe's difficulties in disposing of the vile liquid.

Eda was next called up on her first hash along with Twin Peaks & Fuzz for laying trails. Fuzz was quite surprised but she had helped in setting last week's aborted hash & Twin Peaks should have had two down-downs but was spared the double misery.

My particular thanks to Twin Peaks as she took over this run as Steptoe & Walkies did not know how Crystal would fare after her Cruciate Ligament operation.

On on, Steptoe

Welcome Eda

Hare

Walkers

Returnees

Rest

Thatched Hares

Polluter

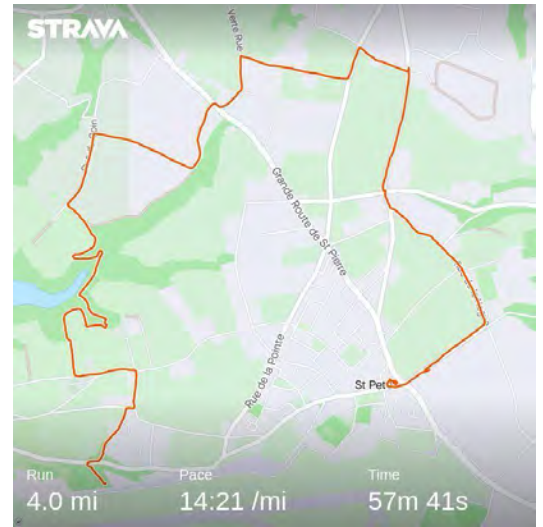

Eco-Warrior

Harriette Trio

Waiting

Truncated route

Yuk! GM's worst nightmare

Chrisie gifts