Mothers' Day Delight

We start today from outside the St Brelade parish hall with our hare Hooker, who said the trail was very well marked as she and Captain Poocock would not be with the 6 runners this morning.

The pack ran off along the beach towards Beaumont, onto the perquage and on up through St Peter, see 'strava map' to see the route. However there were 3 members of the pack who decided they knew a better way back and went off the well laid trail, did Frisco and Jacko lead Zack astray, maybe live hares might be the way forward so that members who are not able to run now do not set a run that isn't followed.

The 8 walkers meanwhile also went along the beach to Bel Royal, leaving the walkway to go along the perquage to Sandybrook and on past Hooker and Cpt Poocock abode and then back along the seafront to the 'Traf' for the very tasty On downs and the down downs which were delivered by the substitute RA Jacko.

First up was ET, who had previously moaned about the poor parking in St Aubin, but parked in a prime spot with no problems, next was Hooker who had refused to pretend to do some ironing for a TV cameraman when Cpt Poocock was interviewed about the gas outage compensation, or lack thereof. Illegal Immigrant was next up to celebrate his recent birthday, Fuzz had her birthday down down with the hares as she had been missing when the birthday song was sung.

Just before we all left the bar Edda, and her husband, surprised us with flowers for all the mums which is a Turkish tradition for every mother.
