Absent Sinners on Wendolene's Run

*"Summers pleasures they are gone like visions every one
And the cloudy days of autumn and of winter cometh on."* (John Clare)

Well we started with cloudy skies & a strong south-east wind but a dozen hardy hashers turned up at Les Quennevais for Wendolene's run. Despite the conditions our hare's run turned out to be an enjoyable one.

However, the start did not engender confidence as our hare did not seem too confident that we were on the correct trail that she had laid the previous day. But, no worries, we were soon heading down the Railway Walk towards St. Aubin but were suddenly diverted through Les Quennevais Parade & onto Le Parc de Pont Marquet. But what is this? We are taken back on the Railway Walk but heading west. & then towards the Airport. There was time enough for some serious discussions on insurance matters before the runners met up with the walkers near the Airport & the obligatory photo was taken.

After this halt, the runners passed through Les Ormes Holiday Village, down Mont a la Brune & were diverted along Le Mont Fandon. Having been on the trail for some time, soon there could only be one way to go & that is onto the dunes. The tracks in this area are somewhat soft so we labour up past the winter pond (empty at the moment) & "run" up to the playing fields & gratefully head for our cars..

With the down-downs beeing held at the Croquet Clubhouse we find the Harriettes hard at work preparing the bread, pates & cheeses with which to delight the pack. There was even tea & coffee for those that preferred a hot drink to the traditional alcohol. This was all rounded off with Twin Peak's delicious cake. After having our fill we were called outside for the down-downs.

It was announced that the Christmas Lunch would be held on 15th December. Afterwards, our deputy Hash Rev. could not identify any sinners (What is happening to the hash?) & presented Wendolene with a well deserved down-down. Wendolene is not renowned for her swift despatch of these punishments but this time she managed with only one pause. Well done that Harriette on all counts!
