

CRAPAUD H3 REPORT

Run No.:	1844
Date:	18/05/25
Hare(s):	Twin Peaks

The continuing good weather encouraged more than a handful of hashers to venture out west for this week's run from The Sir George Carteret pub. The grandmaster drew attention to the fact that Jersey unfortunately lost this year's Muratti football match – the annual inter-island competition which Jersey had won for the last 5 years. Sad faces all around – well at least from those who like football the rest of us were a bit indifferent to the news!

On to more serious matters . . . It was good to see Cliffhanger safely back after his Saharan trek. I'm sure a hash run would be a stroll in the park after that particular endeavour. And it appeared that Bags of It escaped any serious injury after last week's little mishap but we won't say anymore about that.

The trail was laid in copious amounts of sawdust and just a little bit of chalk and once the pack was called to order it headed off in a westerly direction – in other words in a very roundabout route towards Val de la Mare reservoir. The Strava pic below gives a fairly accurate description of the run as set by me, Twin Peaks, this week ably abetted by Wendolene and Shifty, who decided they would like to join me on what proved to be a very scenic walk.

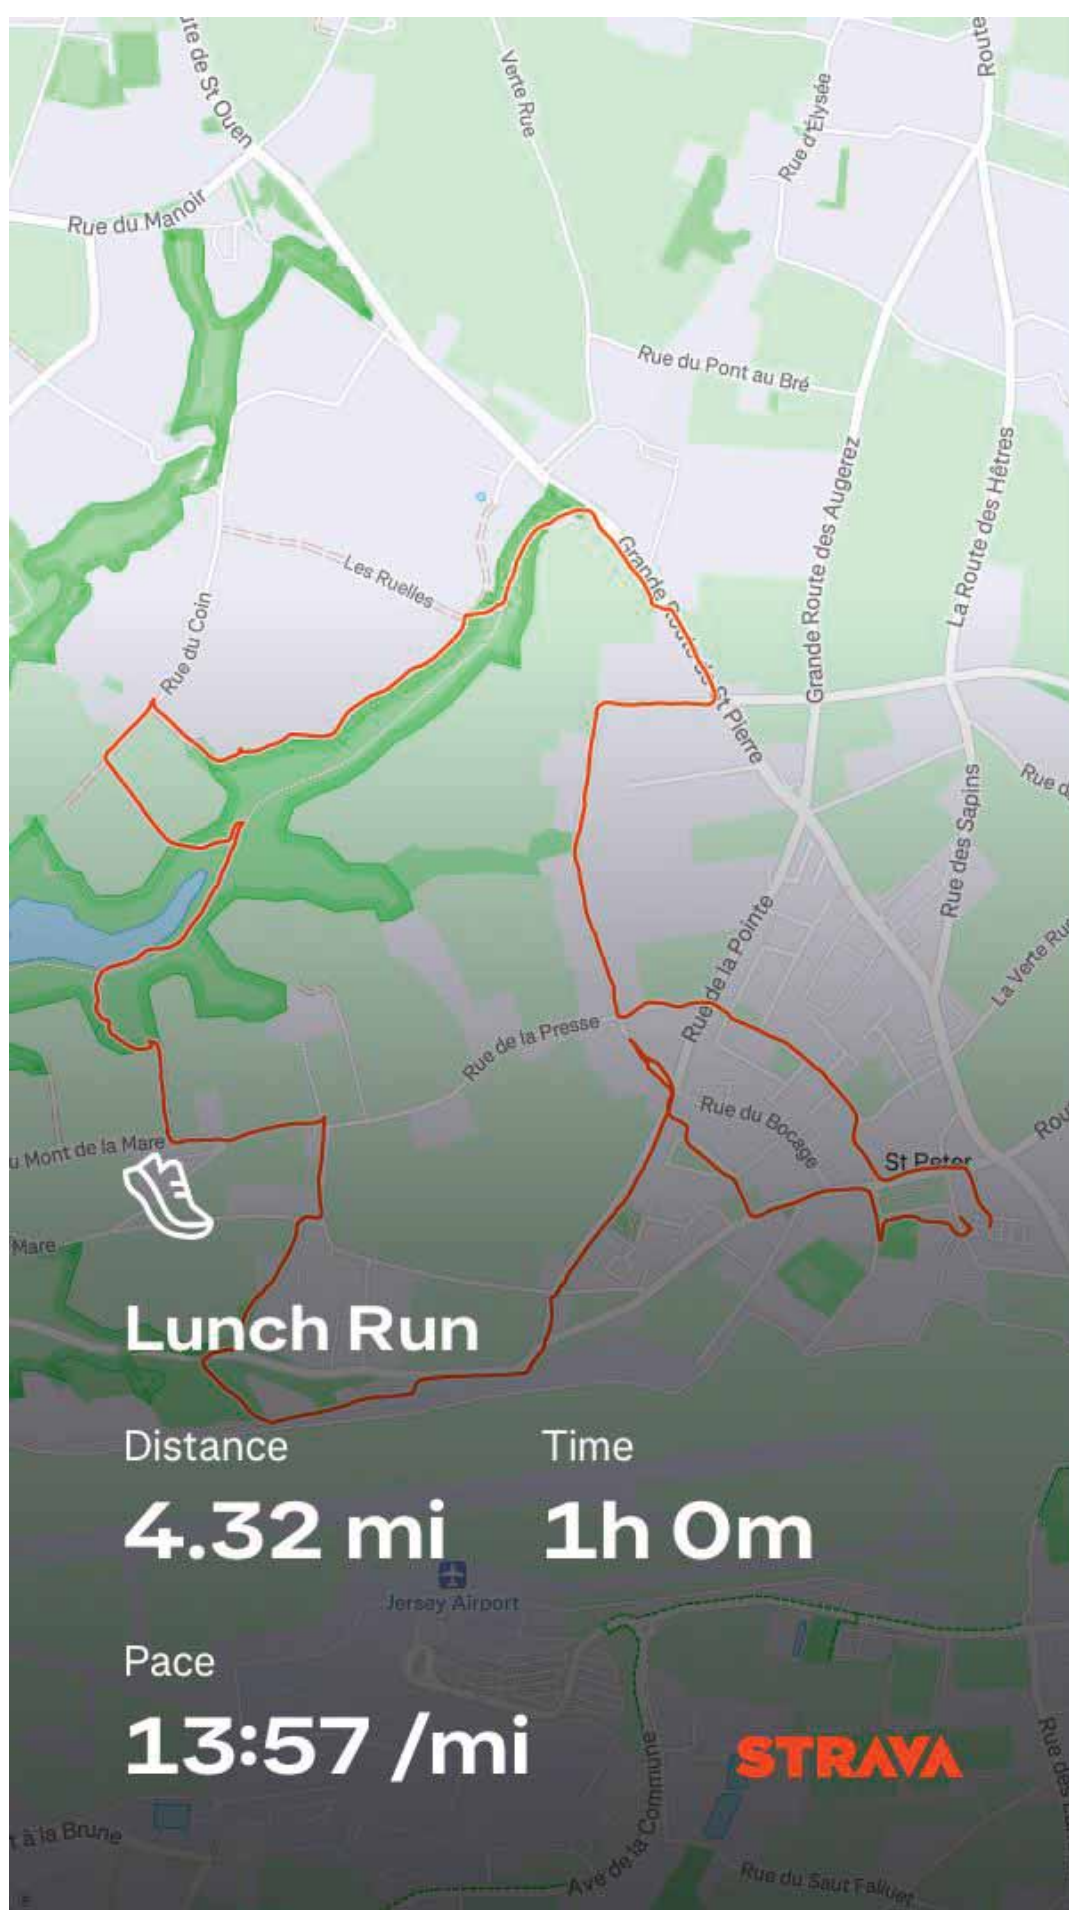

Once again Mark, the publican at The Sir George Carteret, provided us with a plentiful supply of chips, sausages and enough bread and butter to satisfy everyone's hunger.

A down-down was awarded to Pervey on the publication of his book about the life of Popeye, aka Frank Lawrence. Over the past couple of years Pervey has spent quite a bit of time with Popeye helping him formulate his memories. This recently resulted in the publication of Navigating a Passage Through Life, The Frank 'Hurricane' Lawrence story. The book can be purchased directly from the author or from Amazon and sells for £14.99.

Further on-downs went to Cliffhanger for his aforementioned walk and to Twin Peaks for organising the run.
