

Crapaud H3 Report

20th July, 2025

Run/Walk 1853

Hare: Muff Diver

Scribe: Steptoe

“It’s about half on road & half on paths” so our Hare, Muff Diver, informed the pack. He did not indicate that the paths might be somewhat up & down & a challenge to the runner & would take about twice as long as the road section. But, of course, we would have no problems as Jacko had been given a map detailing the trail.

Previously our GM had welcomed two prodigals back into the fold. Yes, Ballcock & Turkish Delight had returned to the hash. He also confirmed the latest sporting news but was reminded of the Jersey team’s excellent performance in the Island Games.

The running section of the trail took us on a loop to Les Platons. Some pleasant trails led us to a long descending section which ended up at the cliff paths which gave us spectacular views. However, the path was undulating until we got to Wolf’s Lair at Egypt where our GM received running repairs & after a brief rest we climbed the steep route & ended up at the car park at La Pierre de la Fatalle much to the relief of my tired legs.

The walkers were comfortably seated & enjoying their drinks when the runners arrived. However, Twin peaks was soon revealing her provender, delicious sausages & rolls, which was enjoyed by all.

Whilst the weather had been decidedly dodgy in the early morning but the improved weather had tempted about 20 hashers to turn out. The parking at Tas de Geon is somewhat limited but not so tight that there can be no excuse for Frisco doing his best to strand his car. Despite everyone’s efforts the vehicle stayed stuck. Why he did not get a down-down is unknown to me?

The first down-down resulted in the birthday song being rendered in honour of Smuggler who promptly disposed of his reward. Next our returnees were called up & our Hare, Muff Diver, & his more than able assistant, Twin Peaks, were presented with their punishments. It is surprising to report that Turkish Delight was rather astonished to be called out in this situation.

As the weather was deteriorating the hashers quickly packed up & left for home leaving Frisco's car to be recovered later. Thanks to Smuggler for providing additional photos.

On on, Steptoe

Reserved! - No parking here

A delighted Turkish Delight & her Christmas gift

What could go wrong?

Push

Frisco's car is going nowhere

Runners

Walkers

Sloe gathering – will we taste the gin?

Cliff path here we come!

Ministering angel

Relaxation

Lonely?

Birthday Boy

Final down-downs

It felt more like 5 miles+