The wild west?

For the first run of August, we are meeting at St Ouen's Parish Hall car park, where we are advised to put our parking discs up. Our hares today were 28°S and Droopy Drawers.

We were called together by Jacko, our Grand Master, on his return to the fold after an eye operation. Today there were 7 runners who enjoyed running through the lanes of Saint Ouen and alongside part of Val de la Mare reservoir. There was a slight altercation with a donkey car driver over from our sister island who was using the rural lanes for some practice of driving at speed. When challenged by a hasher for driving too fast his reply was that the speed limit was 40 mph and continued on his way. Steptoe has provided a map of the route, see in photos.

The walkers, ably lead by Illegal and Twin Peaks enjoyed a similar, if shorter route and had a minor incident with a very grumpy cyclist, who probably had no bell to indicate his presence, but proceeded to shout loudly at the majority of the group. Commando had to do some emergency repairs, Becks lead broke when she encountered a passing dog.

Back at 'Jerseys Best Floral Pub' (aka. The Farmers) we enjoyed our usual tasty selection of food and drinks in the sunshine.

Our Hash Rev was off Island so Jacko called everyone for the down downs, only to realise that no drinks were available, this was quickly repaired by Illegal and our birthday girl, Taxi, was called forward for her punishment, which she didn't appear to enjoy. The hares were then called for their punishment and Droopy Drawers had a similar reaction remarking "It's bloody beer!" perhaps not to her liking? 28°S obviously had no reservations as he appeared to be the only person to enjoy his punishment.
