Easter fun

The sun was shining on a lovely Easter morning. As requested a few of the arriving hashers were donning their Easter bonnets (pics below). There was to have been a prize for the best bonnet but unfortunately this got overlooked in the general excitement – I'll leave you, gentle reader, to judge who should have one. Twin Peaks then took on the role of the Easter bunny and doled out goodies from her little basket of joy. (no euphemisms intended!)

Numbers were substantially bolstered by Frisco who turned up with numerous friends and relatives, nearly all of whom decide to run. This led to to runners actually out- numbering the walkers, something not witnessed for quite some time.

Our hare for the day was Muff Diver and as he was joining the walkers he called upon the perennial substitute hare Wendolene to lead the running pack. Their route can be seen on Steptoe's Strava recording reproduced below. The walkers meanwhile took a gentle stroll through the lanes of rural St. Peter's.

Both the runners and the walkers arrived back at the same time and headed for the back entrance of the George De Carteret only to find that they had come back too soon and the pub was not open yet. Some decided to add on a bit of a loop whilst others sat in the sun waiting for the doors to open.

Eventually we all got to the bar at about the same time as a load of locals creating a bit of a log jam for the bar staff. They did a sterling job and soon we were all slaking our thirsts. Not long afterwards the usual fare of mini sausages, chips and buttered bread arrived.

Once the feasting had died down Jacko asked us to assemble outside for the down downs. Frisco then called forward Steptoe to be punished for recently celebrating his 62nd wedding anniversary and he was joined by our noble hare.

Well done everybody and Bouan Pâques!
