Summer is Icumen In

It's Summer time or at least British Summer Time which means that the bleary eyed Hashers that turned up at The Frances Le Sueur Centre had been deprived of an hour's sleep. However, this is one of Wendolene's favourite hashing areas where we can enjoy varied trails which might be otherwise denied to us. After the GM's introduction & the round up of local sporting results, Wendolene gives us brief instructions & the five runners are off. The walkers, of course, will plough their own trail. Confidence in our hare is temporarily shaken as she realises that she has taken off on a wrong trail right at the start of the hash. No worries, we are soon back on track & enjoying the views across St. Ouen's Bay before heading inland & across La Mielle de Morville. We climb up to Grantez & eventually meet up with our walking hashers which gives an opportunity for photos. A quick run down the hill & eventually along Le Chemin du Moulin & back to the Centre.

Wendolene had provided us with bread, ham, a couple of patés & cheese which went down very well. Our GM had to leave early but asked that Easter Bonnets be worn next Sunday. The pack decided that he should provide the prize for the best hat. Down-down time brought the opportunity for Trotsky & Nil-by-Mouth to be rewarded for their Birthdays. However, the beer did not go down too well so that Nil-by-Mouth nominated Smuggler & Trotsky Fuzz to finish their offerings.

Last week's Hares Vital Statistics & Shifty were joined by Wendolene & did much better than their predecessors although this week's Hare was a little tardy in the despatch.
